

Join Nebraska Appleseed for a Training in YOUR Community

FREE

Who Should Attend: College Admissions staff, Career Planning and Placement staff, parents receiving ADC (Aid to Dependent Children), Human Service Providers, Child Advocates, Community Action Agencies, Medical Providers.

Choosing Education in Nebraska

This workshop will give you a general understanding of Nebraska's Employment First Program and walk you through the step by step process to include education as a work activity in an Aid to Dependent Children/Employment First Self-Sufficiency Contract. Brochures and handbooks will be provided. This presentation will also include a "Nebraska's New Neighbors" overview of immigration and community integration issues, including the right of Nebraska's immigrant students to pay in-state tuition at Nebraska colleges and universities, regardless of their immigration status.

LOCATIONS: Chadron, Ogallala

Dual Presentation: Building Self-Sufficiency in Nebraska and Nebraska's New Neighbors

Part 1: Building Self-Sufficiency in Nebraska

Food Stamps, Medicaid and Kid's Connection. Child Care Assistance. Ever wondered how these programs work? Ever wanted to learn about how to make them work better for your clients? Join us to learn more about public assistance programs, resources (including Nebraska Appleseed's information line), and policy ideas for improving self-sufficiency programs in our state.

Part 2: Nebraska's New Neighbors: Immigrants and Immigration

Curious about trends in immigration? Working with immigrant community members? Come learn more about immigrant and community opportunities related to education, work, financial education, and more.

LOCATIONS: O'Neill, Ainsworth, McCook, Lexington, Broken Bow

Child Welfare Program Director Sarah Helvey and Health Care Access Program Director / Registered Lobbyist Jennifer Carter will be traveling to these communities as well and would be happy to meet if time permits. Please contact Nebraska Appleseed at (402) 438-8853 if you are interested in meeting with either of them while Appleseed is in your community.
